

Currently developing an All-Hazard tool utilizing multi-platform sensors and machine learning combined with authoritative historical and dynamic geospatial data to support virtual and real-world operations.

Initial design is for use as a Digital Twin as a first responder and emergency management tool for Planning, Response, Execution and Recovery.

